

Another Do-Nothing CoB Administrator?

During the Tyrone Black administration of USM's b-school, administrators developed teaching schedules/loads, handled accreditation duties, attended to students' needs, attended meetings, and taught courses. Since the Harold Doty administration (2003-07), administrator teaching has become a rarity, at least relative to the old days of Black.

According to the fall 2009 schedule insert above, newly hired CoB accountancy director Kirby E. "Skip" Hughes is falling right into the "do-nothing administrative track" developed years ago by Doty. Despite the recent retirement of associate professor James Henderson and Hughes' addition of a new accounting information course that necessitated a new AIS instructor, Hughes is apparently not going to chip in himself and help the department out on the teaching front on the HBG campus this coming fall.

Is Hughes another do-nothing administrator? You decide.
