Brain Drain Good and Plenty

The new USMNEWS.net series, "The CoB's Brain Drain, 2003-Present: An Illustrated History," shows just how costly the faculty flight has been since the administration of former CoB dean D. Harold Doty began. That series does so through illustration -- it allows USMNEWS.net readers to view the journal covers representing the publishing being done by those who have fled the CoB since 2003. As that series indicates, former CoB faculty who exited Greene Hall since 2003 have collectively published in 22 unique B-level journals over the past 5 years. This report presents only those 22 journal covers, which all appear after the alphabetical list of the 22 journals below. USMNEWS.net reporters hope that you will take a moment to consider, through the list and picture gallery below, the toll of the Doty administration of USM's CoB.
