HATTIESBURG – Following initial reports from CBS Sports, that USM Coach Larry Fedora had been offered the head coaching position at the University of North Carolina, NBC Sports has now confirmed that Fedora has accepted an offer to take the reins at North Carolina.

Close on the heels of USM losing its head coach, ESPN's Andy Katz is reporting that SMU, Central Florida and Houston are leaving C-USA to join the Big East Conference. Joining them in the move are Boise State, San Diego State and Navy.
