

Bushardt to Join Doty in 2010-11?

More and More Reports Say It's for Real

Reports continue to come to USMNEWS.net indicating that former CoB management professor Stephen Bushardt, now a management professor at Spring Hill College, will be joining former CoB dean Harold Doty at the University Texas at Tyler for the 2010-11 academic year. Doty was b-school dean at USM from 2003-07, though his tenure in USM's CoB was mired in failure, including a February-07 AAACSB washout that resulted in AACSB probation (6th Year Review) for USM's CoB. Interim CoB dean Alvin Williams (2007-08) would later clear-up that particular mess. Doty would resign as CoB dean in April-07.

Bushardt (pictured below) spent multiple decades in USM's b-school, partly as chair of management. It is in that capacity that reports have him at UTT later this year.

Long-time readers of USMNEWS.net will recall that Bushardt is infamous for his cult-like "Heroes and Storytellers" approach to academic governance. Much of that cult-like approach to academic governance is covered in the USMNEWS.net archives.

Stay tuned for more of this story as it develops further.