

CoB Flashback: June 7, 2005

Former CoB associate dean, Farhang Niroomand, may have spent the first day of the 2006 AACSB Annual Meeting held in Paris, France, from 23-April-06 to 25-April-06 visiting France's famed Louvre, but he's got nothing on former CoB dean, Harold Doty, in that regard. While he was supposed to be in Toronto attending an AACSB conference on teaching, Doty visited the Toronto Hooters on June 7, 2005, and he put his purchases there on the USM Corporate American Express Card. As the Downtown Toronto Hooters location's website shows, Hooters is most well-known for its cold libations, delectable chicken wings and entertaining pay-per view television events.

Entertaining pay-per view TV

Cold libations

Delectable chicken wings

Done Internet 100%

Though the Toronto Airport Hooters location's website (shown below) focuses more on the entertaining pay-per view television events and the cold libations, things are much the same there as they are at the Downtown Toronto Hooters location.

In either case, Doty spent $15.59 at Hooters in Toronto on June 7, 2005, and, as stated above, he charged that amount to his USM Corporate American Express Card. Need one ask why the CoB was so proud to have Doty as its leader from 2003-07?