We get many visitors who look for reports specifically about Harold Doty. Many. If you haven't seen his video—don't know how you missed it—it's on the front page here at usmnews.net. You really should listen to it. It is rich. As one reader put it, "Ol' Booze-Account Doty knows how to make a fool of himself." And we hear he hasn't changed one bit. If our sources are correct, the cliché is fitting: Can't teach an old dog...

Any way, why are the folks at Metropolitan State College of Denver "Googling" Doty? Is Doty looking for a job at MSCD? That's a natural question, even though we couldn't find any indication that MSCD is looking for a new b-school dean. From what we hear around the country, Doty is constantly casting about for a new deanship. Well, if he's really leaving Tyler, you can almost hear the faculty at UT-Tyler, except for Steven Bushardt, give a collective sigh of relief.
