

USMNEWS.net • Dear USMNEWS.net • Dear USMNEWS.net • Dear US

Dear usmnews.net:

Recently I was at an academic conference and was talking with some people there. The subject of “Harold Doty” came up, and one person there said, “Harold Doty is a sociopath*.” (I think almost everyone in the conversation was familiar with your website.) The series on the St. Johns and their lawsuit against Texas Tyler certainly shows that if Doty is not what this person claimed he is certainly as close as it gets. I am looking forward to the new stuff from [Karen] St. John’s husband [Jeremy St. John]. I am sure many other readers are as well. Though I feel sorry for the faculty at Texas Tyler for having to put up with Doty, I know most people are hoping he stays there for the remainder of his academic career.

[name withheld]

*To the readers of usmnews.net,

Unlike a number of current and/or former faculty in the College of Business at Southern Miss, neither the editor of usmnews.net nor its reporters and contributors claim any knowledge in the fields of psychiatry or psychology. usmnews.net does not express any opinion whether Dr. Doty suffers from sociopathy or the credibility of the person(s) making the comment.