

Dear football fans,

Last night's "Friday Night Tykes" (Esquire channel) offered a troubling portrayal of adults sacrificing their young sons to the football gods and creating, among other things, a culture of bullies.

Coaches and parents claim they are building the character of Tykes: "You gotta bully 'em."
"Stop f**kin' cryin' and get back out there."

You gotta wonder what the Tykes do to other kids off the football field?
