

Dear usmnews.net

Dear usmnews.net,

Your recent series about the money wasted on public relations for a fourth tier public university has been a real public service. It is disgusting to think that woman (former-President Martha D. Saunders) was allowed to waste three quarters of a million dollars on PR with apparently no accountability while tuition continues to climb.

Speaking of which, where was the IHL when all of this was going on?

Dear usmnews.net,

Do you think anyone is really surprised to find that Saunders found a way to funnel money to an old friend? Nothing ever changes at Southern Miss, except tuition and the number of administrators, both of which keep going up.

Captain Renault: I'm shocked, shocked to find that gambling is going on in here!
[a croupier hands Renault a pile of money]

Croupier: Your winnings, sir.

Captain Renault: [sotto voce] Oh, thank you very much.
