Dear usmnews.net,

Have you heard anything about the Kaetsu professorship? A few years ago [Management Department Chair] Dave Duhon received the honor. I looked at his [CoB] biography and there was no mention of it. Out of curiosity, I ran a quick search of the USM webpage and found no recent, as in the past three years, mention of it [Kaetsu professorship]. Any idea what's going on?

Dear Name withheld,

The Kaetsu professorship seems to be like a lot of things. It is announced to a great deal of fanfare then falls off the radar. Figuring out what's going on it made even harder because the Foundation's website does not provide information about the available endowed professorships or the standards/requirements for obtaining one.

However, you have piqued the interest of our intrepid reporters.
