

DEAR USMNEWS.NET

Dear usmnews.net,

No one seems to know what she screwed up so badly to not only get fired, but to be replaced by a transitional president while she still held the title of president. However, word around the water cooler is that Martha Saunders' deal with the IHL was that she would not return to Southern Miss this spring or ever. If true, in order to save face, she has to have a job before the spring semester. What better than to have a job in Pensacola -- a place where she already has a home.

One final thought -- Good riddance!
