Dear usmnews.net,

This morning's comparison between the president of the University of Albany and the president of the University of Southern Miss was very interesting, but hardly something the faculty doesn't already understand.

Every time President Bennett mentions "research" and Southern Miss' status as a research institution, we cringe. According to his resume, [President] Bennett has never published a [single \[academic\] paper](#). Heaven help us all, but he makes [former president Martha] Saunders look like an academic superstar. He [Bennett] is a fourth tier president for a fourth tier university.
