Dear usmnews.net,

Thanks for reprinting the “Is Rodney Bennett Qualified to be President” series. The answer is pretty obviously, no. I have a question. If he [Dr. Bennett] has never published a paper, how can he evaluate our [the faculty’s] research?

Dear Name withheld,

Based on our inquiries, the (unanimous) consensus is Dr. Bennett will rubberstamp whatever comes out of the college and university tenure review process. But, as one person stated, “won’t it be intellectually dishonest if he [Dr. Bennett] denies someone tenure because their research isn’t good enough? It isn’t that Dr. Bennett’s research lacks rigor; there just isn’t any – rigorous or otherwise!”
