Dear usmnews.net,

Why doesn't Southern Miss drop its sports programs? Since the school doesn't have, and never will have, the resources to compete with the big time schools, it is a complete waste of money. It's hardly a state secret that the University sports programs are a bottomless pit consuming state and student money with nothing to show for it.

It's a good thing that you don't publish names, because I can only imagine how much hate mail I would get for this opinion email
