Dear usmnews.net,

Maybe you have the answer to a popular question around the water cooler (if we actually had one). Where are Rod Posey, Charles Jordan, and Patty Munn? They precipitously retired from the School of Accountancy about the same time you did, but no one seems to know what they are up to?

Name withheld

Dear Name withheld,

I don't know where they went. However, it seems odd that all three disappeared about the same time with no apparent fanfare. If anyone out there has any information, please feel free to send it to me and usmnews.net will publish it.
