

Dear Santa

Dear Santa:

I have tried to be a good boy this year, but it is hard when I am surrounded by these people at work. Can I skip over the tape recording at the meeting thing? Thanks. For Christmas I want the dean to pick someone else for the director job and let me go back to obscurity. I am tired of being bullied with hints of tenure votes about anything they want. They can have it. In fact, it may be time for me and my wife to pack it up and move on one more time. That is sounding better by the hour. You can have it, Mary!

Thanks.
