

DEAR USMNEWS.NET

Dear usmnews.net,

Thanks for the "Ripsnaptious" report. As best I can tell, "ripsnaptious" is a new word used by "cool" people or those who want to appear to be "cool". It also served as a reminder of a report published on usmnews.net concerning Dr. Saunders' efforts to recreate her college days, perhaps as she wished they had been. Would you please provide a link to those articles?
