

Did You Know? . . .

- Between 2000 and 2005, marketing instructor Dolly Loyd had as many intellectual contributions as economics professor and CoB Associate Dean Farhang Niroomand.
- Ignoring Antarctica, Barry Babin, Farhang Niroomand and Alvin Williams collectively have visited all of the World's Continents since 2000.
- Farhang Niroomand claims to have been the Director of Graduate Programs in the CoB from 1991-2000, even though a report at USMPRIDE.COM shows that at least three other individuals held that position during that time period.
- EFIB Chair George Carter is “grooming” visiting assistant professor of international business John Lambert to be the next full-time, tenure-track IB faculty in the CoB.
- Faculty in management and marketing often recuse themselves from casting T&P votes at the department level so they can later cast votes at the College Advisory Committee stage.
