Ernest W. King (1959-2012) Professor of Business Ethics

Current USM business dean Lance Nail has righted some inherited wrongs during his 2008-present administration of the CoB. One of these was recognizing the scholarly pursuits of Ernie King, the USM professor who passed away on 28-Jan-2012. It was Nail who named King Professor of Business Ethics, a title that was well-deserved, thus earning praise for Nail from a number of USMNEWS.net readers in recent days. One of King's many scholarly publications is a co-authored paper that appeared in the Journal of Business Ethics. That publication has been cited almost 300 times by other scholars, a number that most business faculty only hope to achieve over a lifetime of scholarly productivity.
