Have you noticed a "spring" in Harold Doty's "step" lately? Some faculty are saying that he has one because he is out on the job market now and appears to have some leads. We'll have to wait and see if anything pans out.

Recent hallway conversations have focused on Susan Doty's classes. It appears as though her classroom activity is now sporadic. Some are speculating that she has "taught all of the material" already, and that she reached that stage at the beginning of Nov-07.

Word is spreading about a major cheating scandal in CoB classes, possibly involving student-athletes, with some traditional students apparently blowing the whistle on the situation. If so, this deserves more attention. Look for a report from USMNEWS.NET reporters in the coming weeks.

Interim Dean Alvin Williams' surprise retirement announcement is sure to create some buzz around Greene Hall. Look for different versions of the "full story" to come from the various CoB political factions. More later.

If you've noticed young kids hanging around the CoB's Greene Hall in recent weeks and didn't know who they are, those are the Dotys' kids. One faculty member has quipped that ". . . Greene Hall not only looks like a three-story double-wide, it is one."

GH Chatter is a series at USMNEWS that provides a glimpse at what CoB students, and sometimes CoB faculty, are discussing throughout the corridors of Joseph Greene Hall.
