

GH Chatter

Just as one CoBer asked what conventional wisdom was with respect to CoB dean Lance Nail searching next year (2009-10) for permanent replacements for his new interim department chairs, another chimed in and said that Nail would do whatever it takes to allow him (Nail) to travel even more next year than he did this year. Such was some of the recent chatter regarding the CoB's recent chairperson searches, and Nail's penchant for travelling/being away from the CoB. Can you sense a little pessimism around the CoB about what became of Nail's first year?

If recent chatter is anywhere near the mark, this summer promises to be entertaining with regard to Greene Hall real estate. Of course, and as in the first entry here, CoB dean Lance Nail will miss all of the fun due to travel – this time to British Studies.

GH Chatter is a series at USMNEWS that provides a glimpse at what CoB students, and sometimes CoB faculty, are discussing throughout the corridors of Joseph Greene Hall and beyond.
