

GH Chatter

Some real interesting chatter of late – some are saying that Mississippi IHL Commissioner Hank Bounds will be the next president of USM. And, the story has Bounds forcing current USM president Martha Saunders out sooner rather than later, and assuming the position at that point. Bounds is a native of Hattiesburg, and has two degrees from USM. One can easily see how being one of the big three presidents would be a better gig than head of the IHL. Let's wait and see.

Speaking of Martha Saunders, her UWW use of private, "fun" money surely looks like something out of Harold Doty's book. Having the UWW Foundation cover first husband Joe Bailey's $2,000 plane ticket to London seems worthy of an investigation.

Will CoB dean Lance Nail be leaving after this year? Chatter hits both ways on this one. The weight of opinion though is that he will be back next year for another round in the CoB.

Chatter has it that the sudden departure of Deniz Gevrek may end up saving George Carter's job at USM. Will this be a good move for the Martha Saunders administration? Maybe not – some are saying Carter could provide an assist regarding the first chatter item above.

GH Chatter is a series at USMNEWS that provides a glimpse at what CoB students, and sometimes CoB faculty, are discussing throughout the corridors of Joseph Greene Hall and beyond.
