

GH Chatter

Chatter indicates that the CoB's administrative assistants fear the iron hand of Sonia Gaines-Littles. Gaines-Littles is also said to begin each day with USMNEWS.net. Perhaps a "Google 10: Sonia Gaines-Littles" is in order.

USM's big national tv loss to Houston on Saturday dropped the Golden Eagles to 5-4 on the year. Now even getting to a bowl is at issue. Should the Eagles fail to get to New Orleans or somewhere comparable, chatter has it that the Academic Planning Group may have to absorb an additional $100,000 or so in budget cuts to the institution in order to assist Richard Giannini's "situation." The Eagles have road games with Marshall and East Carolina and a home date with Tulsa remaining. Anything could happen.

Chatter has it that CoB dean Lance Nail is on the bottom of USM president Martha Saunders' deans list. After losing the entire ECO unit to retirement and CoAL, the CoB's budget, SCH, etc. have been falling since summer.

GH Chatter is a series at USMNEWS that provides a glimpse at what CoB students, and sometimes CoB faculty, are discussing throughout the corridors of Joseph Greene Hall and beyond.
