

GH Chatter

Stories are circulating around Greene Hall about CoB faculty receiving "secret raises" at the end of the 2007-08 academic year. If it is true that former interim CoB dean, Alvin Williams, and former TM and MGT & MKT chair, Tony Henthorne, passed out hidden pay increases, that news will come to light sooner or later.

CoBers continue to speculate about what new dean, Lance Nail's, first big announcement will entail. Some are saying that he has raised money for one or more new professorships, and will announce that soon. Others guess that it will involve a restructuring of the CoB in form or fashion. The first CoB meeting under Nail's leadership is right around the corner. Maybe something will come from that.

GH Chatter is a series at USMNEWS that provides a glimpse at what CoB students, and sometimes CoB faculty, are discussing throughout the corridors of Joseph Greene Hall and beyond.
