

GH Chatter

There is lots of chatter about the apparent secrecy surrounding the UPC's suggested budget cuts. The Student Printz is printing ominous reports about the future cuts, and some in the Saunders administration are hinting here and there about them. But, the official word is scant for now. It looks like the lesson learned by Saunders et al. from last summer (2009) may have been to keep things under cover this time around.

Speaking of the coming budget cuts, all signs are pointing to faculty terminations. Chatter has it that the CoB will again take some hits. Topping the list of suspects is MIS' Kuo Lane Chen, who was only recently tenured. Also there are FM's Erin Drake and Gallayanee Yaoyuneyong, who are both on tenure track. Some are saying that letting these go, while hanging on to instructors like Patty Munn and Evelyn Green, is a crying shame.

GH Chatter is a series at USMNEWS that provides a glimpse at what CoB students, and sometimes CoB faculty, are discussing throughout the corridors of Joseph Greene Hall and beyond.
