SOME NEW(ISH) COB FACULTY GET PHOTOS ON WEB

It may have taken years (in some cases), the CoB's web pages at usm.edu are now getting some photo uploads. Much of the new uploading takes place among the CoB's management faculty. This effort includes the photos of Bret Becton, Brian Collins, SherRhonda Gibbs, and Bruce Gilstrap. These relatively new faculty are shown below.

Becton

Collins

Gibbs

Gilstrap

These photos join those for Francis Laatsch, Skip Hughes, and Leisa Flynn, new chairpersons in the college. Finally, one CoBer whose photo was recently uploaded is already departing the organization. This individual is John Hansen in marketing, who is now affiliated with the University of Alabama at Birmingham.
