

Interim CoB Dean Alvin Williams' Inaugural Speech
April 10, 2007

Thanks for the opportunity, and I look forward to working with everybody in this capacity. It's a difficult time for our college, but it's also an interesting time. And I think it's a time for us to work in a spirit of trust, in a spirit of teamwork, and in a spirit of civility. And I say that from the standpoint of Joe Greene. Some of you are old enough to remember Joe. Joe was Dean for 35 years, and he was a man of civility, and a man of integrity, and I would like to restore just a little bit of Joe Greene in Joe Greene Hall.
