

Investiture: What does it mean?

Of USM's New President?

Celebration of first among equals?

In times past, maybe.

Today, it is a declaration from the powers that be. You must obey. You must not speak truth. You must understand your place in the commercial standards that are dictated from the IHL. You are no longer a member of an academic community that practices academic integrity. If you dare speak truth, you will be punished by the "diversity" leaders it has chosen, if this one is like the last one, to cast out "troublemakers." You will be punished for acting on USM's profession of "the free exchange of ideas, diversity of thought, joint decision making, and individuals' assumption of responsibility." You see, the tradition at USM is not as it professes "cherishing the free exchange of ideas, diversity of thought, joint decision making, and individuals' assumption of responsibility."

In plain language, keep your mouth shut or face the wrath of a "diversity" leader. There you will stand alone at the mercy of arbitrary and capricious whims of a mob.

If you say I speak falsely, prove it.
