

'Marta' Bids Farewell to the SMC Community

USMlite Once Again Splashes Humor onto Events at USM

Once again USMlite.com injected (on 3-May-2012) some much-needed humor around the current crises surrounding USM. This comes, as so many entries from USMlite.com do, via an audio address from fictional "Southern Miss College Chancellor Marta von Saunderheisen." Von Saunderheisen's address to the "SMC community" (see insert below) is accompanied by the familiar classical music theme, and it touches upon all of the issues du jour, including the firing of USM provost Robert Lyman, reference to the IHL (the "Hockey League" to von Saunderheisen), mention of associate vice president Gordon Cannon, and various other humorous references.

Latest News - Southern Miss College

May 3, 2012 - Marta Says Goodbye!

It's with sad hearts that we say goodbye to our Dear Leader, Marta. Here is a special farewell message she has prepared for her dearest friends in the SMC community:

Goodbye.mp3

Newer visitors to USMNEWS.net who are not familiar with USMlite.com should spend some time on that site, which houses a number of written entries, as well as humorous cartoons, audio recordings and other items of interest to those who follow events at USM. Readers often pass along compliments of that site's spoofy content. The "Parking Heaven" cartoon on the main page is one of the more popular features there.