

Martha's Podium

An Editorial Cartoon Series from USMNEWS.net

Our VP of Admin Affairs, Chad Driskell, has completed his audit of the USM airplane, and preliminary results indicate that the time savings from having our own plane has spared us tens of thousands of dollars annually. Unfortunately, much of this benefit was lost in the time we spent stuck in traffic jams between campus and the local airport. So, it is with much excitement that I announce that we will be leasing this helicopter from the USM Alumni Association. The monthly lease payment will be around $11,500, and Chad thinks we can cover a big portion of that through use of the heli by local businesspeople, who will probably be itching to use it too. It's a good plan . . . I'm fur it!
