

Niroomaster

There is already evidence, given the Niroomand & Hudson Play a Little Game scenario, that new SoBA dean (at the University of Houston – Victoria) Farhang Niroomand is the same plantation-style administrator now as he was when he patrolled the hallways of USM's JAG as associate b-school dean (1998-2007). Still, it has to be surprising to see that he didn't learn anything from 2003-07, which is the revelation one gets from his new Dean's message photo over on the UH-V website (see below). That photo shows Niroomand holding his coat over his shoulder in much the same manner as former CoB dean (Niroomand boss) Harold Doty did in his "welcome me" photo for USM's b-school more than five years ago.

It's this type of situation that so often has CoBers exasperatingly using the phrase "these people" to describe what goes on amongst the CoB's top executives on almost a daily basis. While Niroomand may now be UH-V's problem, the exasperation in the CoB continues given the antics of those like Steven Jackson (SAIS director), George Carter (EFIB chair), and even Sonia Gaines-Littles (assistant to the dean).
