Why does the IHL visit usmnews.net every day, often several times a day? As reported in the past, the editors and reporters at usmnews.net are pleased the IHL is hearing from someone other than university presidents.

One explanation for their visits may be they want to know what's going on. It's common knowledge that Mississippi university administrators, presidents included, are expert in public relations. The upshot: Only good news they choose to reveal is offered. And, when hidden problems become too big to hide, presidents get canned—think Thames and Saunders. It's also common knowledge that IHL members are novices in the world of higher education -- child-like in their knowledge of what really happens at a university. So, perhaps they visit usmnews.net as a source of reliable information.
