

REVISITING LEE GORE

usmnews.net is running prior reports about Lee Gore, one-time USM legal counsel, current legal counsel at University of West Florida--where Martha Saunders, past USM president is now provost. usmnews.net expects to provide an update on Gore's current shenanigans in the near future. However, before those reports begin, we want our readers to have a context. Click here for a link to "Lee Gore: 'Every professor's first name is 'Plaintiff'.'" (Oct 13, 2011)

Lee Gore "Every professor's first name is 'Plaintiff'"

Even though Lee Gore was replaced as university counsel about a year ago, he remained on the university payroll for many months. As with many unwanted faculty, he remained on the payroll while his replacement served as university counsel. Not too surprisingly, Gore began looking to become university counsel somewhere even before his non-salaried non-job came to an end.

Don't believe it? Feel free to request transcripts of sworn testimony and records found in usmnews.net's archives.