

Revisiting Black Tuesday

One of the Saddest and Most Shameful Days in the History of the College of Business

Newcomers may wonder what Black Tuesday is and why it has such meaning to many people, most of whom are no longer at Southern Miss. It was a day on which administrators, with the assistance of Lee Gore, trampled faculty governance in the College of Business.

We invite you return to the original usmnews.net webpage of the events leading up to and following Black Tuesday.

Future reports from usmnews.net will discuss the events a day at a time showing how faculty governance is perverted with the guidance and assistance of Lee Gore, former University Counsel.
