

Stupid small stuff Harbinger of stupid big stuff

What the folks at Big Gold Nation are saying:

SouthernMiss.com is as bad a web site as I have seen. I'm not saying this to bash the school, I'm saying it because it is an embarrassment to the school. You can't see parts of it because of the banner adds, and then you can't navigate it because it lags so badly. It's just plain STUPID. It does not represent well , and it speaks volumes about our current president and AD. Nobody that loves this school would allow such a piece of junk on the internet.

i agree with you 100%

Unfortunate. You get what you pay for I guess. Loads of banner ads means that they aren't paying much if anything to their web host.

I agree. In the recent alumni survey I mentioned this very issue. We have ads all over that website. But also on our baseball field. I wish we could cut that down. It just looks bad.
