

Special Report

Dean Doty makes Broadcast Yourself™; CoB Sinks even Further An Investigative Series on the use of the CoB for Personal Gain

Over the weekend (February 9-11, 2007), usmpride.com broke the story that CoB Dean Harold Doty's 2005 job interview "presentation" to faculty and staff of the University of South Florida is now receiving international fame via an upload to YouTube. A recent screen, captured below, shows what YouTube visitors find when they access Doty's page on the site:

As the screen above shows, the film clip is titled "Doty Describes the 'Fun Money.'" A recent visit to the page (2/12/2007) by usmpride.com reporters reveals that the film clip has already been viewed 216 times, has received a 5-start (out of 5) rating for interest, and has been commented on by two viewers. This information is all shown below:

Rate this video:
★★★★★
2 ratings

Views: 216

Comments: 2

Post a video response
Post a text comment

Comments & Responses

mercerqa (2 days ago)
This kind of stuff ruins the public directional schools.

18northshore (1 day ago)
Imagine a St. Jude's administrator telling a room full of other hospital administrators that the private donations that St. Jude's receives all go into a booze account as fun money. Because this guy Doty is a university dean out in the middle of nowhere he gets away with it.

As the insert above shows, neither comment describes Doty's statement in a positive way. Our reporters will continue to monitor this page and report on the latest comments and ratings of 2005 Doty's speech in Tampa.