News Briefs from Southern Miss

5-April-2011

Still Thriving

Based on Jennifer Rigney's 4-Apr-2011 presser entitled "Blackwell Named Director of Residence Life and Housing," USM's administration has yet to suffer any discomfort as a result of the Great Recession, and its accompanying fiscal difficulties. As Rigney points out, Oklahoma State University's Scott Blackwell, pictured below, has been named USM's new director of Residence Life and Housing.

Blackwell

Blackwell is currently serving as OSU's assistant director of Housing and Residence Life. He told Rigney that he "will work to keep students in the forefront and make the Southern Miss campus housing experience both meaningful and supportive of academic excellence at the university."

Thursday Nights in 'burg, Friday Mornings at USM to Change

If City of Hattiesburg and USM officials have their way, nightlife in Hattiesburg is going to change in the near future. In response to various night time episodes involving gunfire, a new group calling itself Town Gown is planning, among other things, to support a policy of administering drug tests to students on Friday mornings, presumably in an effort to curb Thursday night partying around the city. In response to this proposal, which will curb the Thursday partying habits of about two-fifths of those USM students who currently participate in such (according to The Student Printz's survey), USM student Kacie Bailey told TSP that such a blanket policy is unfair to students who do not use Thursday evening as a party night. Though nothing has been enacted to date, sources tell USMNEWS.net that major changes to Hattiesburg's night life are almost certainly coming in the weeks/months ahead.

One, Two, Three, Four . . . Eighty Six

Eighty six faculty have departed the CoB since former CoB dean, Harold Doty, was hired by USM back in 2003. Doty, now the business school dean at the University of Texas at Tyler, mismanaged the CoB in a number of ways, most of which are chronicled here on the pages of USMNEWS.net. A list of those 86 faculty is presented below.

Though Doty's actions are, according to sources, responsible for part of this list, current CoB dean Lance Nail has had his hand on it as well. Note the large losses in economics – Nail had this program dissolved. There are no economics professors on the tenured/tenure-track faculty rolls at USM today.
