

The Gang That Couldn't Shoot Straight

Another week, another incident. That's how many observers describe CoB dean Harold Doty's administration. In a recent usmpride.com editorial, Marc DePree stated that "In this regard [providing ample opportunities to point out administrative abuses and blundering], I'll miss you [Doty] when you [Doty] go." That's an apt a statement as has been made on this website since its inception.

Doty, Niroomand, Barry Babin, Carter, Becker, Pate, Daniel, Posey, Lewis, Bushardt, LaFleur, Henthorne, Sawyer, Davis, and others would be dangerous if they weren't so inept. It's clear that they think they have an absolute right to play games with others' lives, and it's clear that they spend quite a bit of time plotting and scheming.

Unfortunately for them, however, they ARE so inept that they can't pull off these schemes, and they continually make mistakes that interested observers can investigate, leading to discovery of secret degree programs, secret raises for sycophants, plans to cheat students, faculty and administrator plagiarism, and other misdeeds.

Yes, the Doty Administration has a worse enemy than even the editor and staff of www.usmpride.com: themselves. Much like the fictional gang from the movie "The Gang That Couldn't Shoot Straight," Doty and his group of bumbling administrators make the same mistakes over and over. They attempt to do underhanded things, yet they cannot maintain the secrecy necessary to pull them off because they fumble some important part of the process. For the usmpride.com staff, it's like shooting fish in a barrel.

Of course it must irritate Doty to no end that his repeated mistakes, his purposeful misdeeds, and his lack of administrative abilities are on display for the world to see at www.usmpride.com. Even more humiliating must be the fact that these reports have been read by folks from at least 40 states and over 20 foreign countries. That means that faculty and administrators at good universities all across North America, the European Union, and Southeast Asia all know about Harold Doty's inability to lead, his conniving nature, and his utter immaturity. Good luck landing that Tier 1 job, Hal.

What must sting the worst for Doty is that, in most instances, he and his staff of Keystone Kops are the ones who have given themselves away.
