Hi Red . . . did you see what I put in your box this today?

Cynthia and I were just looking at it. What is this? It looks like a picture of the Justice League of America or something.

Look very closely, one of your colleagues is in the picture, Red. What you're seeing occurred at an academic meeting he attended.

Oooooohhhh . . . I see exactly who you're talking about. These . . . faculty dressed up like this at a conference? . . . Where did you find this?

That's interesting. I came in at 7:30 this morning and found them on the desks of every classroom. I took a couple up to my office. Apparently, Dean Toady was told about them just before 8:00 am, and he pulled the fire alarm outside his suite. Everyone had to exit the building. He emerged minutes later with a fireman, both holding stacks of these pictures.

So pulling the fire alarm helped him prevent students from seeing these. I wonder if the university will be charged for the services of the fire department.

Hi Red. Where did Cynthia go? What do we have here?

I'm sure you already know about this, Dr. Treelung. And, I bet you are about to tell us there's no quorum again, huh?

No Nearydom again? I'm out guys.
