I see you brought my Sports Illustrated back to me, Dr. Nearydom.

Oh, yes. That article you told me about was as good as you said it was.

Okay, Red is not here today. He's covering Teddy's classes. We can get started, then. I say we take up Red's summer teaching proposal. I vote "no."

I vote "no" as well, Dr. Treelung. I don't see why we should cave in to Red's whining.

Thanks for your thoughtful consideration, Dr. Nearydom. Cynthia, Red's proposal fails even without your vote. I think it would be best to record you as "abstain." You are, after all, untenured.

I really appreciate that, Dr. Treelung.

How would you have voted, Cynthia?

Don't answer that, Cynthia. Dr. Nearydom is just fooling around.

Oh? . . .
. . Right.
