President Allrides, I would like to welcome everyone to the Gump Center for this hearing. Let's proceed.

Thank you for that welcome, Provost Truegal. Mr. Duper, do you have Dr. Blue's psychiatric evaluation?

I have it here, Madame President. It was done by Dr. Phil.

Now Mr. Mack, what was it that Dr. Blue said in class that got you so upset?

We were discussing the campus chalking incident, and I said the chalkers were vandals, and should go to prison.

And what did she say?

She said a felony charge would equate what the chalkers did with the guy poisoning those trees at Eagle University. Hearing that, I slammed my fist on the table.

I must interrupt here. Is this a hybrid course, or a traditional one?

I don't see how that matters, Dean Toady.

It is a traditional class setting, President Allrides. Although there is one duplicated student in there, from the inner city campus I think.

Mr. Mack, you seem very familiar with the President. Why is that?

I am president of the "Students for Sports Association." In that role I get to each lunch with her every Wednesday.

Interesting. Now in that capacity, do you two have occasion to discuss what goes on in classrooms?

I don't see how this line of questioning is relevant, Mr. Duper.

I don't either. Oh, and let me say thanks to you, Dr. Gaskett, for serving in the emeritus position on this panel.
