Teddy, be sure to walk down the hall after the meeting today and check your mailbox. There's a surprise in there for you.

What is it?
What's going on?

Some of our colleagues were photographed at that new club Foam last weekend. It seems they were guest judges of an "Apple Bottom" contest.

Unbelievable!
What's in my box?

Photos of the whole thing. It appears that a student who was there snapped them, and then placed them in everyone's box here sometime last night.

Wow! What is going to happen to them?

Nothing. The folks over in the admin tower are trying to find out who placed the photos in the mailboxes . . . That kid is going to be expelled.

Nothing ever changes here, Red.
