The April 8, 2012, Chronicle of Higher Education, reported the "2012 Faculty Salary." Take a look at the University of Southern Mississippi.

Full Professors at $87,600 is "Far below median." Associate Professors at $65,600 is "Far below median." And Assistant Professors at $58,100 is "Far below median. Instructors? Worse, yet.

Anyway, just to remind the readers that the last usmnews reported flight of the multimillion dollar plane, N777AQ, cost $42,797.02 without any announced concomitant benefit. That is, $42,797.02 for merely one flight of N777AQ, and for nothing in return.

As faculty at Southern Miss, aren't you glad that Dr. Saunders has her airplane while you are paid "Far below median"?
