

Communicate Directly with the IHL

Dear University of Southern Mississippi Faculty,

Many years ago, under IHL rules, faculty were permitted to address grievances directly with the IHL. That was changed. As a result, Southern Miss communications with the Institutions of Higher Learning come from President Saunders. As we have learned, Dr. Saunders filters information through a public relations and advertising prism. Therefore, information that casts Southern Miss and/or her in an unfavorable light is unlikely to find its way to the IHL.

You may now have an opportunity to communicate directly with the IHL. Someone at the IHL has become a regular visitor to usmnews.net (see the most recent visit, below). (We do not know who the visitor is and have taken no action to find out.) Let me encourage faculty to send communications you would like to see placed before the IHL to usmnews.net. (marcdepree@gmail.net or m.depree@usm.edu) As long as it is (1) accurate or (2) is an opinion amounting to fair comment on established facts, usmnews.net will publish your communications. Given the level of downward mobbing at Southern Miss, names will be withheld when requested.
