

Is that you Martha, Harold?

Many people have observed that former USM President Martha Saunders and former USM Business Dean Harold Doty brought with them long term devastation from which the University and College still struggle to recover. Many years after their less than voluntary departures, folks are still interested in the pair. We at usmnews.net believe court documents, open records requests, depositions, and other publicly available documents (including their own words) should be available to those who are subject to administrators with a history of bad behavior. We regularly see visitors checking on the pair.
