

Where's Lee P. Gore?

After Lee P. Gore attorney at law in Mississippi played fast and loose with the rules/laws in Florida and got caught by the Florida Bar, he was supposed to be reassigned to Martha Saunders' Office Staff (She apparently doesn't mind Lee Gore playing fast and loose with rules/laws) at the University of West Florida. That's because he was hired to be UWF chief counsel but failed to meet the qualifications to practice law in Florida. Instead of terminating his employment, effective 1-Nov- 2013, Bense appointed Gore as an assistant to Provost Martha Saunders

Imagine our surprise to learn that Lee P. Gore was not included on Martha's list of Office Staff. As we read through Saunders' list of office staff, we identified a veritable arm of Vice Provosts, Vice Presidents, Assistants to the Provost, Assistant Directors, Specialists, Coordinators, Specialists, etc. However, one name was conspicuously missing. Come to think of it, Lee P. Gore was given only a 90 day, temporary contract. I guess Bense and Saunders didn't renew it.

I am pleased to offer you a 90-day temporary assignment as Assistant to the Provost beginning November 1, 2013 and ending January 29, 2014. You will report directly to me. The annual salary for this position will be $123,400.
