

DEAR USMNEWS.NET

Dear usmnews.net,

Do you have a picture of Lee Gore, the guy who's [allegedly] practicing law in Florida without a license? I was at USM for years, and was trying to see if I knew who he was. I don't think I ever saw him. I don't know. But a picture sure would help. I looked everywhere. USM's website, UWF's website, The Student Prince and The Voyager. It seems strange to me. Is he trying to hide something?

If you have a picture of Mr. Gore, put it up so I can see if I ever ran into him on campus.

Dear Name withheld,

I couldn't find a picture of Lee Gore, either. When you go to university websites, including those of USM and UWF, pictures -- both portraits and candid shots of high level administrators and most, if not all, faculty are rampant.

Does he have something to hide? Your guess is as good as mine.
