

Dear usmnews.net

Dear usmnews.net,

The reason we keep coming back to usmnews.net is really stupid and offensive comments from people like (vice president of student affairs) Joe Paul. While he talks about students “looking for federal financial aid” (read federally guaranteed loans), budgeting their money, living a monastic life, etc., he makes no mention of the University cutting costs instead of looking for more income.

It shouldn't be that hard to cut back on construction paid for with borrowed money, offloading the d**n airplane, dumping sports programs that don't come close to supporting themselves, reducing the number of bureaucrats, eliminating the overblown and useless PR department, dropping expensive lobbyists, etc.
