

HERE'S WHAT WE KNOW ABOUT MARTHA SAUNDERS

After usmnews.net reprinted an editorial by Duane Cobb entitled What do We Really Know about USM President Martha Saunders? a colleague provided a copy of Dr. Saunders' vita. The vita is undated, but has clearly been updated as recently as 2008. At the request of a colleague, one of our contributors researched Dr. Saunders' most recent scholarly effort –

Saunders, M.D. (In press.) Applying global ethics beliefs and principles.
Journal of Ethics in Leadership.

When our reporters checked the Journal of Ethics in Leadership, he found that the Journal's web page had not been updated since September 2006. The most recent volume shown on the webpage is 2005. Current news for the journal indicates that “[w]e will begin accepting unsolicited manuscripts for Vol. III, no. 1 (fall 2007) beginning in the fall 2006.” However, research was unable to find any indication that a fall 2007 issue was ever published. As before, the most recent news update was September 2006. We can find no indication that the Journal of Ethics in Leadership still publishes – or has published since 2006.

Please review the vita and advise usmnews.net what additional peculiarities you find in the resume?

I suspect that you may find your self asking the same question Duane Cobb asked two years ago: What do We Really know about USM President Martha Saunders?
